LIST OF American Prisoners of War who died at Princetown, Dartmoor, England 1812-1815

Compiled by Mrs. Henry James Carr

Published by Association of State Presidents, Past and Present,
and Charter Members, of the National Society,
United States Daughters of 1812

Many valuable historical records were destroyed when the British burned the Capitol, August 24, 1814. This doubtless accounts for the fact that our government did not possess a list of our soldiers and sailors who had been taken prisoners during the war with Great Britain, 1812-1814.

Mrs. Clarence F. R. Jenne, President National of the United States Daughters of 1812, during the four years, 1919-1923, having learned that the original documents, regarding the War of 1812 were on file in the Public Archives of Canada, in Ottawa, corresponded with the Secretary of War, and the senior United States Senator from Massachusetts regarding the possibility of obtaining an appropriation by Congress to defray the expenses incident to the making of a transcript; and, receiving no encouragement, because no appropriation of like nature had ever been granted, brought the subject before the annual meeting of the Associate Council of the United States Daughters of 1812, in April, 1922.

New York and Pennsylvania state societies immediately pledged the necessary funds for securing certified copies of these important lists.

Five typewritten sets were received in 1923; one for the National Society; one for the Federal Government; one for the Library of Congress; and one for each of the states—New York and Pennsylvania—that had paid the expenses of transcribing the lists.

In order to make these records usable by our various state societies, the following index has been compiled by Mrs. Henry James Carr, and the expense of printing has been borne by the Association of State Presidents, Past and Present, and Charter Members, of the National Society of the United States Daughters of 1812.

The certified record of the General Entry Book of the Prisoners of War at Quebec, as received from Ottawa, contains number of each prisoner; by what ship or how taken; time when; place where; prisoner's name; place of nativity; description, (age, stature, complexion, hair, eyes, marks and wounds); whether exchanged, discharged, died or escaped, rank, etc.; but, for sake of brevity, only the prisoner's number, name, and place of nativity, are given in the following list. In sending to the custodian of the records for any further particulars, be sure to give the prisoner's number, as well as the name, as the numbers are in consecutive order, and desired information may be more readily found by the number than is otherwise possible.

Many of the prisoners were taken by the land forces at Beaver Dams, Stoney Point, Fort Niagara, Fort Erie, Fort Sclusher, Fort George, Rapids, and Red Mills. Others from the Man of War vessels: Scorpion, Tigress, Ohio, and Summers; privateers: Alfred, Corsack, Lizard; and merchant ships: Poshea, Forsyth, Jack, George and Armline.

"1812" Memorial Window St. Michael's Church, Dartmoor, England

"1812" Memorial Window St. Michael's Church, Dartmoor, England

During the war with Great Britain, 1812-15, many American prisoners were detained at Dartmoor Prison, in England. In April, 1813, there were seventeen hundred American prisoners within the walls of that prison.

The whole number of Americans imprisoned was 6,554; two-thirds of them from New England; and one-third of all being from Massachusetts.

The United States Daughters of 1812 in the several states contributed to a fund for a beautiful stained glass window, in six panels, which was made and placed in St. Michael's church, Princetown, Dartmoor, England, in memory of the American prisoners of war who were detained in the Dartmoor prison between the years 1812-1815, who helped to build that church; and especially to the two hundred and eighteen brave men who died in behalf of their country.

The window was unveiled June 4, 1910, by Mrs. William Gerry Slade, President National of the United States Daughters of 1812.

A picture of the window, in colors, is reproduced upon the National Society United States Daughters of 1812 certificates of membership.

While Mrs. Slade was in Princetown she was given the following official list, taken from the British records, of prisoners who died in prison there.

Killed, Prison No. 1, John Mann.

Prison No. 4, John Haywood, Thomas Jackson.

Prison No. 5, George Campbell, Joseph Johnson, William Leveridge, John Washington.

Wounded, Prison No. 1, John Grey, John Ogleby, Stephen Phillips.

Prison No. 3, James Bell, William Blake, Caleb Codden, Philip Ford, Edward Gardner, Thomas Smith, James Trumbell, Edward Whittlebank.

Prison No. 4, Joseph Busah, Jacob Davis, James Israel, Robert Little, William Penn, John Roberts, Robert Willet, Peter Wilson.

Prison No. 5, William Appleby, Thomas Finley, Andrew Garrison, John Grrior, William Lane, John Leach, Pain Penny.

Prison No. 7, Michal Connors, Frederic Howard, Edward Lincoln, Francis Mitchel, Henry Mountcalm, James Willis.

A number more were slightly wounded, and several were missing.

From the first of March, 1815, to the first of April following, died in the hospital with small-pox about seventy American prisoners of war whose names are not here recorded.

The following were among the American prisoners who died in the Hospital Dartmoor in the years 1813, '14, and '15, with name of vessel and place of residence:
